meet.js Summit 2018

meet.js Summit is a conference that gathers 500 professional JavaScript developers, covering all topics around web development, front-end, back-end and mobile web. In 2018, we are meeting for the 6th time. Tickets for meet.js Summit usually get sold in 5 minutes.

And speaking of tickets, this year all proceeds from tickets go to charity!

The next Summit will take place on October 19, 2018 in Poznań International Fair, which is comfortably located in the city centre (across the street from the main train station – Poznań Główny).
